The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

National Library of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Bibliothèque nationale du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

NOTE.

THE additions, both of Treatises and Reports, recently made to the Library, as well as the gradual accumulations of late years, necessitated the preparation of a new Catalogue, which, nearly a year ago, was entrusted to the present writer. Other duties, and the desire to make the new Catalogue as detailed and complete as possible, have caused a delay in the appearance of the work, which, though unavoidable, has been a source of regret to the compiler. The result of his labours, however, is now before the profession. Any defects in the work the compiler trusts may be charged to his lack of a professional, rather than of a bibliographical, acquaintance with law.

The divisions of the Catalogue are these: I. Descriptive alphabetical classification (Treatises, Reports, and Miscellaneous Books); II. Chronological List of Reports, Statutes, &c.; III. Abbreviations; and IV. Index. For obvious reasons the lists given of United States Reports (pages 241 to 266) include the whole series known to be published. All, however, are not in the Library. The note at the head of page 241 indicates the Reporters in the Collection, and should be referred to by those consulting American Reports.

In order that the Catalogue may represent a full record, to date, of the books in the Library, the latest acquirements have been enumerated in an Addendum (pages 377 to 381.)

The compiler gratefully acknowledges the Librarian's kind offices during the preparation of the Catalogue.

BRITISH LAW TERMS.

By the Act 1 William IV., cap. 70, it is provided that, in A.D. 1831 and after-ward,—

HILARY TERM shall begin on the 11th, and end on the 31st of January.

EASTER TERM shall begin on the 15th April, and end on the 8th May.

TRINITY TERM shall begin on the 22nd May, and end on the 12th June.

MICHAELMAS TERM shall begin on the 2nd, and end on the 25th November.

By the Act 1 and 2 William IV., cap. 3, it was further provided, "That in case the Day of the Month on which any Term according to the Act aforesaid is to end shall fall to be on a Sunday, then the Monday next after such Day shall be deemed and taken to be the last Day of the Term; and that in case any of the Days between the Thursday before and the Wednesday next after Easter shall fall within Easter Term, then such Days shall be deemed and taken to be a part of such Term, although there shall be no Sittings in Bank on any of such intervening Days."

The Long Vacation extends from the 10th August to the 24th October.

The first Law Term is called, from St. Hilary, "Hilary Term," because it used to commence on his festival (January 13th). The Law Terms were originally regulated by the Canonical Constitution of the Church, which, by exempting certain seasons, namely, Christmas, Easter, Pentecost, and the harvest season, from forensic litigation, divided the year into four periods, or terms, called from the festivals immediately preceding their commencement, Hilary, Easter, Trinity, and Michaelmas terms.

In Scotland, the Law Terms are differently arranged. The Court of Session sits from 12th November to 20th March, and from 12th May to 20th July. But there, as in England and Ireland, the judges are employed in other business during the intervals.

D. P. B.	Dampier, J., Paper Book †

* The Digests of Pandects are divided into 50 Books; each Book is divided into Titles, and each Title into Laws; and the Laws generally into Parts or Paragraphs. The first paragraph is not numbered, and is usually quoted by the abbreviation in pr. (in principis). The last paragraph is sometimes quoted by the word in fine, or § ult. (paragaphus ultimus). The Digest is variously quoted by the letters D or P, or II, or ff. If is supposed to be a corruption of the D with a stroke through the middle, or perhaps of the Greek II.

The ancient mode of quotation was by mentioning the initial words of the Law and of the paragraph, with the initial words of the title. This made a reference to the General Index necessary, e.g., L Profectitia, § si Pater, D de jure dotium, or in reversed order, D de jure dotium L Profectitia § si Pater. Afterward the quotation was L Profectitia 5, § si Pater 6 D de jure dotium; and latterly L 5, § 6, D de jure dotium; or, more correctly, using the letters fr instead of L, since the passages were not laws, but fragments or excerpts from the writings of the Jurisprudents, fr. 5, § 6 D de jure dotium. The modern mode avoids all reference to the words. It is thus: fr. 5, § 6, D 23, 3; or, in reversed order, D 23, tit. 3, fr. 5, § 6, or, shortly, D 23, 3, 5, 6, i.e., Digest.

* The Institutes of Justinian are divided into four books,—each book is divided into titles, and each title into paragraphs, of which the first, described by the letters pr., or princip., is not numbered. The old method of citing the Institutes was to give the commencing words of the paragraph and of the title; e.g., § si adversus, Inst. de Nuptiis. Sometimes the number of the paragraph was introduced, e.g., § 12. Si adversus, Inst. de Nuptiis. The modern way is to give the number of the book, title, and paragraph, Inst. I. 10, 12; i.e., Inst. Lib. I. tit. 10, § 12.

* The Novels, or New Constitutions, are explanatory of the Code. The greatest part of these Novels was composed in Greek, owing to the seat of Empire being then in Constantinople. Some, however, were published in Latin, and have been noticed by Antonius Augustinus. There are four translations of the Novels. The Novels are quoted by their respected numbers, chapters, and paragraphs, e.g., Nov. 89, c. 9, § 1.

After Justinian's death, some part of his Novels, to the number of 168, were collected and reduced into one volume, together with 13 of the Greek Edicts, which make up the fourth and last division of the Corpus Juris Civilis.
